Riyadh, Saudi Arabia*

WARDEN MESSAGE

February 21, 2010

The Embassy requests that wardens pass the following message in its entirety to members of the American Community:

Effective Saturday, February 20, 2010, the U.S. Embassy in Riyadh no longer requires appointments for American Citizens Services (ACS) (i.e., applying for U.S. passports, Consular Reports of Birth Abroad, notarials, etc.).

However, office hours for routine services have changed to the following: Saturdays, Sundays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays (NO OFFICE HOURS ON MONDAYS), from 1:00pm to 3:30pm, excluding U.S. and Saudi National Holidays.

For more information, including a list of U.S. and Saudi national holidays observed, please visit the Embassy's website at: <http://riyadh.usembassy.gov/> . For consular and travel information for U.S. citizens traveling abroad, please visit the U.S. Department of State's website at: <http://travel.state.gov>.

No. 01/2010

American citizens are reminded to keep their registration up-to-date. See <https://travelregistration.state.gov/ibrs/ui/> for registration information. You can also review earlier Warden Messages at <http://riyadh.usembassy.gov/service/advisories-for-americans-in-ksa/warden-messages.html>.
